Alma Mater

I

We love thee Smith with all our hearts!
to thee we'll e'er be true
and in the light of truth and right
Hold high the Gold and Blue

Refrain:

Proudly we hail thy name, our Alma Mater, Old S.U.
Johnson C. Smith, our own! Our hope, our guiding star, our light unfailing!
Pride of our loyal hearts, we'll love and honor thee
our whole life through.
On ever on! dear old J.C.S.U.!

II

Fair Smith, where'er on earth we roam,
Send forth thy constant ray
And let it beam with steadfast gleam
To lead us o'er Life's way.

(Refrain repeat)

President

JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY

To the Class of 2000:

GREETINGS:

I am pleased and proud to extend greetings and best wishes to all of you – members of the staff of this annual, officers of the Student Government Association, student trustees, the student body writ large, administrators, faculty and staff – through the medium of the 1999-2000 edition of THE BULL.

In our commitment to the students served at Johnson C. Smith University, it is fitting that we step boldly into this millennium continually dedicated to providing the best possible environment for teaching and learning. I have watched with pride the increased maturity and sense of purpose developed in the student body as it moved about the campus, serving in various capacities of increasing trust and responsibility. I commend you.

Finally, I commend the very fine editorial staff for 1999-2000, along with advisors, for the magnificent effort put forth to capture “A Year Worth Looking Into” in its many faceted aspects. This pictorial depicting the life and activities at the University will be a constant reminder of your years spent here as part of the Johnson C. Smith University family.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Cowser Yancy, Ph.D.
President

A Day In The Life Of A Smithite

What does the statement "A Day in The Life of A Smithite" mean? Over the years the definition has evolved into the following.

Students here at JCSU attend class and we have lots of fun. The average day of a Smithite begins at 9:00 a.m. and ends at 6:00 p.m. Within this day the following activities occur; eating in the café, attending class, chillin' on the block, playing ping-pong, partying on the weekends (off-campus of course), making new friends, and the all time favorite chillin' up top (between Greenfield and Carter Hall). As one will see the "Day in The Life of a Smithite" is jam packed with strenuous and exhausting activities.

"I wonder if he's going to eat that?"

Erin, Tobias, and Reese showing those pearly whites.

Always having a good time.

Smiling before making the long walk to class.

"Ain't no stopping us now, we're on the move".

Mr. Smith, Director of Admissions, welcome prospective students to the "Queen Jewel of the HBCU'S" Johnson C. Smith University.

Freshmen Orientation:

"Hope I get community service for this, Lord knows I'm not doing this for nothing."

"I hope I don't trip. I'll never live that down."

"Look at the brothers working it out."

"This should get me out of band practice . . . I've already had my workout for the day."

"Is she ever coming back home? Never will I go through this again. Ready to get her out of here."

"Where do you plan on putting all this stuff, when you only have a match box room? No one will get me for my things."

Golden Bull Academy

I hope they help me, when it's time for me to go to college.

Where did I put that ... I hope we didn't leave it at home.

It's a family affair.

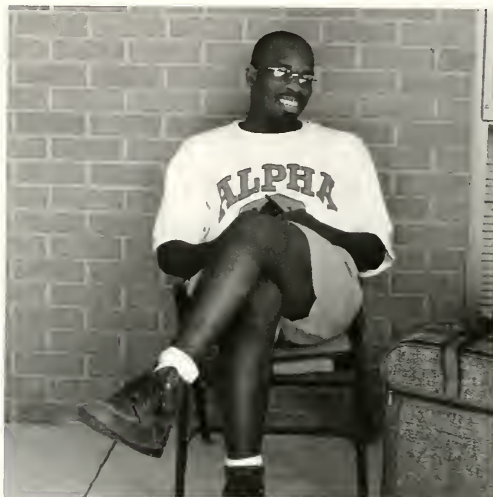

One down two to go. It's about time she's rolling out of here.

I wish you stop calling me, I'm on my way. Do I really have to go all the way up there?

I told that child to get some suitcases instead of these garbage bags.

A Little Rest and Relaxation

Joseph shooting breeze while his other brothers are busy working up a sweat.

Gosh! I'm tired. I will not carry anything else but myself.

We're so proud of our baby!

Whose soda is this? I hope it's mine because I am so thirsty!

Where am I supposed to put this?

Back Too Work

Can I get some help please!!

"Girl if you don't come get this blanket."

Welcome to Johnson C. Smith's annual Career Fair, please take a breath mint.

Well, Ugh ... Should I tell him I really don't know!

That's right, I'm going to be on the cover of Current Bank of America employees, Andrea Royster and Shanikwa Peterkin, and an aspiring one.

Maybe if I fill this application out real neat, they'll hire me.

Let me finish this application; Ooh, who is that?

I hope this smile is worth a million bucks

This Career fair has really brought out many of our young charismatic and outstanding leaders

Eye contact is the most important part of conversation

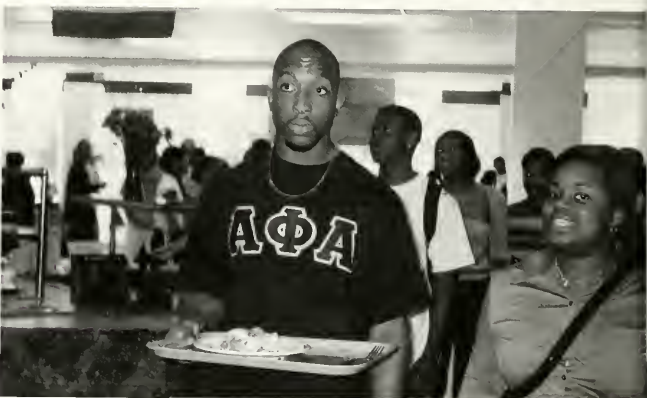

This application is taking too long for me to fill out. Do I really have to complete?

Is that really the starting salary. When can I start work?

Female Appreciation Day sponsored by Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc

"19-06!!!!!!"

"It's about time men start appreciating women," says Shannon Kemmer.

"I wonder where she wants to sit?"

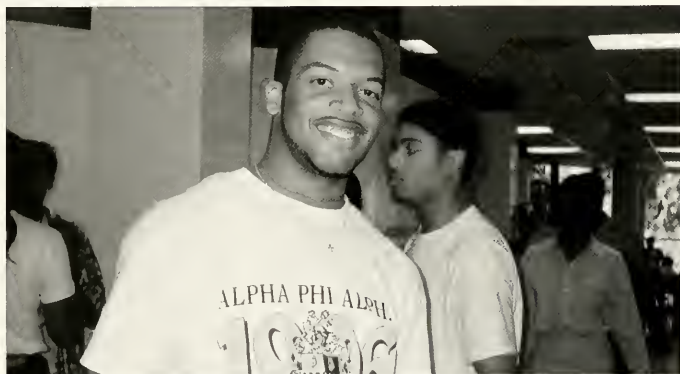

"I thought he was suppose to carry my tray!"

Steve Reynolds waits patiently while she selects a meal from the vast selection of food.

"Look, I can carry two trays at once," says Andrew Lovett.

"Thank Goodness for Female Appreciation Day!"

"I think my work is done for today," says Senior Ahmed Evans.

Steve Waller asked a participant, "Can you repeat your comment?"

"Are you ready for another question and more candy," asks Lushan Hannah

"You got that right girl," says Carita Evans.

POINTS of VIEW

Faces in Places

Are you going to take our picture or what?

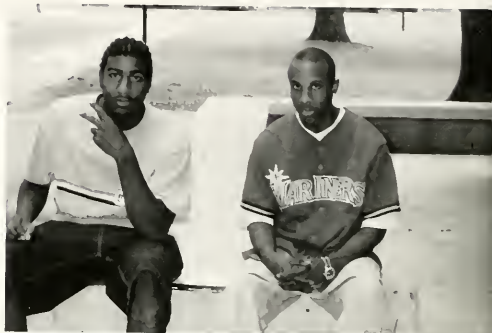

Doing the usual ... Chillin' in front of the Myers Hall.

What can we say ... Mixed emotions?

"If I take this picture, does it mean I have to go to class?"

"Hurry up and take the picture before we're late for church."

Do we have to go to Freshmen
Investiture?

Testing one, two three.

All I can say is Peace.

When will this class be over?

Miss Johnson C. Smith University: Jennifer Patrice Tate

Miss Jennifer Tate is the eldest daughter of Geoffry and Rosemary Tate, Sr. The Washington, DC native leaves her footprints engraves in a neighborhood where everyone was close knit and all of the children attended the nearby elementary school. Surely this was not the best of all neighborhoods as she described it, but as her grandmother always said to her, "make the best out what you have, especially since 'life ain't no crystal stair,' as the all famous Langston Hughes once wrote in his poem "Mother to Son."

As a child growing up, Jennifer always surrounded herself with older individuals such as her grandmother because she was always thirsty for their wisdom and knowledge. Along with her grandmother, Jennifer's open mind and ability to learn encouraged her developed loved for public speaking at the age of twelve.

Throughout her teenage years she was involved in various activities, many of which were related to public speaking. Such activities were serving as the mistress of ceremonies for a variety of programs at school and church, acknowledging the visitors as a part of Sunday worship service, participating in oratorical contest and the school spelling bee. In addition, Jennifer also held many leadership positions such as president of the junior usherboard, vice president of the young people's division and captain of her high school track team.

When she entered Johnson C. Smith University in 1996 she had a number goals that she wanted to achieve. Among the list were continuing to play the role of leader, one of which was becoming Miss Johnson C. Smith University, being on the dean's list throughout her four year tenure, and being active her community.

During her matriculation she has fulfilled many of her goals through the activities. She has participated in and around campus and the leadership positions she has held. Among the leadership positions and activities are: the Myers Hall Step Team, Miss Sophomore Class, Student Orientation Leader and Coordinator, News Editor of the Johnson C. Smith University student newspaper, Junior Class Public Relations Officer, New Residence Hall Council Secretary, the JCSU Student Judiciary Board, the Shaki Modeling Troupe, a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., the Daniel J. Sanders Leadership Institute, Support Our Students Volunteer Program, Reaching Our Children through Johnson C. Smith University Royalty and Student Ambassador for Johnson C. Smith University.

Throughout her busy schedule she has found a way to maintain peak performance academically and has received acclamations such as: The UNCF Reader's Digest Scholarship, Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities, the National Collegiate Communication Arts Award, the International Business Machines Academic Scholarship, as well as being on the Johnson C. Smith University's Dean's List every semester.

Her plans after graduation include obtaining a job in the television industry serving as a foreign correspondent. Later she plans to attend graduate school to receive her MBA, which will lead her into a career in retail purchasing.

As she approaches the end of her college career she attributes the encouragement from her professors, family and friends, her self-motivated attitude and most of all her faith in God to her success.

Her motto is be a winner, be all you can be put your best foot forward and you can't lose, it's the winner who makes the right moves.

First Attendant: Rekita Pitchford

Rekita is a 21-year-old native of Weldon, North Carolina. She is the daughter of Mrs. Sharon Ponton and granddaughter of the late Vera Pitchford Brown. Rekita is a senior majoring in Social Work.

During Rekita's matriculation at Johnson C. Smith University, she has performed exceptionally well. She is a proud member of the Dean's List, yet she still manages to juggle other activities. During Rekita's freshman year, she was Miss Freshman Class 1996-1997. Prior to this, she had been involved in other activities such as Myers Hall Council, Social Work Club and a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., where she served as Secretary and presently serves as the President. Rekita is involved in the community and campus activities. She has served as a tutor for the Charlotte Mecklenburg School Systems, Urban League Volunteer, and Boys Scouts of American and as a fundraiser volunteer. During her leisure time Rekita enjoys talking on the telephone, traveling and reading.

Rekita's future plans are to attend graduate school to receive a MSW and someday become the Director of the Department of Social Services.

Her motto is "The Race is not given to the swift nor the strong, but to the one whom endures to the end."

Second Attendant: Angela Williams

Angela Williams, daughter of James and Maud Williams was born and raised in Queens, New York. Angela is the youngest of three children and is following in her eldest sisters footsteps in attaining a college degree.

During her matriculation at Johnson C. Smith University, Angela has exceeded academically as a Psychology major. She has made the dean's List consecutively since her freshman year and is a proud member of the Psi Chi Honor Society. As a student leader, Angela has been involved in various organizations and has held positions such as: Secretary of the Psychology Club, JCSU Marching Band where she was Blue Satin Dancer, Captain of the Sapphire Dance Team, Student Orientation Leader, Judiciary Review Board, and Student Government Association and held the position as a member of the Board of Trustees.

Angela's future aspirations are to attend a graduate school and earn a Ph.D in Forensic Psychology. She would like to work for the Federal Bureau Investigation.

Angela's Motto is "Seek 'ye the kingdom of God and his righteous and everything else will fall into place."

Nastradamus

Nasir Jones, known as the Long Island Rapper "Nas" immersed into hip hop and street culture at age nine. "Nas" announced his album Illmatic in 1994 and attracted attention to himself for his depiction of ghetto life and his refusal to include much of his misogyny and violence of standard gansta rap. Nas's second album, "It Was Written", was an immediate hit upon its release in the summer of 1996, entering the charts at number one, which far eclipsed the number 12 peak of Illmatic. Nastradamus followed in 1999 (Steve Huey, All Music Guide.)

"Nas" appeared here on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University. Students crowded the student union rotunda in hopes of receiving an autograph, a handshake, or a picture of the famous rap star. Nasir was here at J.C.S.U. promoting his new album "Nastradamus." "Nas" was accompanied by an upcoming star by the name of Fifty Cent. The day was full of Kodak moments for all.

From inception, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., paid homage to our African heritage—symbolized by the Sphinx.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., the first inter-collegiate Greek-letter fraternity established for Black college men, was founded on December 4, 1906 at Cornell University. Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., was the only Black Fraternity born on an Ivy League University. The Seven visionary founders at Cornell, labored in years of severe economic struggle and racial conflict in the United States. Despite these odds the fraternity succeeded, setting the highest standards that all men should follow. Scholarship, Leadership, Manly Deeds and Love for all mankind (peace).

Alpha Omicron is the oldest chapter in North Carolina, being founded on May 4, 1923. The Men Of Alpha Omicron truly uphold the aims and ideas of Alpha. These gentlemen are actively involved in Student Government, Resident Life and various organizations on, as well as off campus. These Distinctive men represent leadership, scholastic achievement and a love for all mankind. Their tenacious qualities stand above all others.

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

On Friday evening, November 17, 1911, three Howard University undergraduate students, with the assistance of their faculty adviser, gave birth to Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. This event occurred in the office of biology professor Ernest E. Just, the faculty adviser, and three liberal arts students were Edgar A. Love, Oscar J. Cooper and Frank Coleman. The fraternity has emerged as one of the prestigious Black fraternities in America. Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. was the first Greek letter organization of national standing to be established on JCSU's campus. On December 5, 1921 Rho Chapter was established and began a career on the campus which has been rewarding to many local Smithites.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc.

Beta Upsilon Chapter

Sigma Gamma Rho was founded on November 12, 1922, on the campus of Butler University in Indianapolis, Indiana. The group became an incorporated national collegiate sorority on December 30, 1929. Seven distinguished young teachers founded Sigma Gamma Rho with the idealism that greater service resulted in greater progress. Hence, the birth of a sisterhood dedicated to its African American brothers and sisters to help provide the means that they may promote cultural awareness, educational and health programs, and recreational activities. Today Sigma Gamma Rho has grown to over 72,000 members with over 600 chapters in the US, Bermuda, Bahamas, and the Virgin Islands. The Beta Upsilon Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority came to JCSU in 1955 and was the first sorority in the Pan-Hellenic Council.

The Legend

And so it was written, God began with his world in design, and on each new creation he sealed it with a sign. For six days he labored then he made woman. He revealed that he was the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end and all that was in between. He looked upon all that he had made and said, "I'm still not satisfied." On the seventh day he DAWNED his last creation, his best design. He grasped from the sky two stars for her eyes and from the royal blue sea, ice cold blood pierced through her veins, and from every shore sand completed her perfect score. God knew in 1922 the epitome of womanhood was finally through. With nothing else to do and no where else to go, He finally made Sigma Gamma Rho...last created best designed and so it shall be done.

Sigma Gamma Rho

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc.

Alpha Epsilon

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. was founded at Howard University in Washington, DC, January 9, 1914, by three young Black male students. The founders, Honorable A. Langston F. Morse and Honorable Charles I. Brown, wanted to organize a Greek-letter fraternity that would truly exemplify the high ideals of brotherhood, scholarship, and service. The founders deeply wished to create an organization that viewed itself as "a part of" the general community. They believed that each potential member should be judged on his own merits rather than his family background or affluence, without regard of race, nationality, color, skin tone, or texture of hair. They wished and wanted their fraternity to exist as a part of an even greater brotherhood-sisterhood which would be devoted to the "inclusive we" rather than the "exclusive we." From its inception, the founders also conceived Phi Beta Sigma as a mechanism to deliver services to the general community. Rather than gaining skills to be utilized exclusively for themselves and their immediate families, the founders of Phi Beta Sigma held the deep conviction that they should return their newly acquired skills to the communities from which they had come. This deep conviction was mirrored in the fraternity motto, "Culture For Service and Service For Humanity."

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was founded on January 16, 1920, by five women on the campus of Howard University. It was the idea of these founders that the sorority would reach college women in all parts of the country who were sorority-minded and desired to follow the ideals and objectives of finer womanhood; scholarship, service, and sisterly love on which Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was founded. Zeta Phi Beta was the first Greek letter college sorority to organize in Africa. More than 250 undergraduate and graduate chapters are divided into nine regions in the United States and Africa. The Kappa Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. was established on the campus on Johnson C. Smith on November 26, 1946.

T.S. Monk Sextet

T.S. Monk, drummer, bandleader, composer and vocalist was drawn to the drums before the age of 10 and his destiny was sealed when Max Roach, with whom he studied gave him his first drum set. His father was the greatest pianist Thelonius Monk. Upon graduating from high school the young Monk joined his father's trio and toured with him until the elder Monk's retirement in 1975. T. S. Monk then worked in the R&B field touring with the group, Natural Essence. Later, he formed his own group with his sister, Barbara, and released two recordings House of Music and More of the Good Life. Not until 1992, did T.S. Monk form his jazz sextet, forging a cohesive and driving style that has shot the group to the forefront of jazz today. His album Monk on Monk won the 1998 Down Beat jazz Album of the year. On September 29, 1999, the T.S. Monk Sextet delighted the audience in Biddle Auditorium with a touch of jazz and R&B sponsored by the Lyceum Series Committee.

Well I guess this space is where I say thank you to the staff, the adviser and all contributing photographers both professional and students. First, I must thank Kokia Tarik, the Co-Editor for her hard work and understanding through the long days and nights in the cold Yearbook Office. Thank you Dean Day, Mrs. Muhammad and Leah Wong the Herff Jones Representative for believing we could accomplish such a tremendous task with a small group of dedicated students. To all the students who know me as the yearbook photographer that title has been passed to both Fafa Baker and Duron Blount. The two of you don't realize the great help you were and continue to be throughout the production of this great masterpiece. The two of you were available whenever I needed you and for that I'm grateful.

To all the organizations who probably think I'm mean and insensitive, but all the pressure was needed to produce the book before graduation; however I apologize. To the photographers, the Homecoming and Sports sections would be empty had I not received photos from a photo-journalism class, Calvin Ferguson, Paul Williams, Patricia Harvey and Wade Nash a few professional photographers. Thank you all for your assistance in a major section of the book. Lastly, Nikki Steele you are the fastest typist I know, thank you. I could always count on you to come into the yearbook office and ask "Do you need me to type anything?" To all the students of JCSU I thank you for allowing me to capture the funny and embarrassing times in one book, "The Bull."

Sincerely,

Snow comes to JCSU

On Saturday, January 22, 2000, Johnson C. Smith University students were given a rare treat, an unexpected snowstorm. Who would have ever thought that Smith students would be able to have a snowball fight on campus? A white winter in the South, never! But it did happen, and the students took advantage of the unusual event and had lots of fun. The fun that was had during the snowstorm is a memory that no one will ever forget. It all started when students were leaving the cafeteria from dinner until about eleven o'clock that night. Leaving the cafe was a test of courage, because waiting outside were Smithites trying to catch one another off guard. There were many different teams, of course there was the guys against the girls, the upperclassmen against the freshmen and the students against security.

ORDINARY

Right
ON Target

When the upperclassmen tried to take over the freshmen side of the street, Liston Hall, Sanders Hall, and Duke Hall, they were in for a surprise because the freshman class is close to six hundred strong. No one will ever forget when the students ganged up on the security guards in New Rez and sent them running back to their cars. Students went in and got plastic tote tops for sleighs and shields. The fun could be felt by all on campus, even those stuck in with a cold. Many people in Greenfield Hall were looking out their windows, watching the fun. They will think twice next time because the fun (snow) was sent flying into their rooms. Do you remember falling down the hill with the help of your friend? Or being pushed face first into a snow mound? Well these are just a few of the many great memories that will go with you when you leave Johnson C. Smith University.

Freshmen: Learning the Legacy

Imagine leaving high school to enter a new world of college. A place where knowledge is gained and lasting friendships are made. To over 600 young men and women this new world is Johnson C. Smith University. In August of 1999, the students enter the gates of Smith as high school graduates seeking to enhance their education. For the first few days, the campus was totally occupied with their ambitious minds and spirits as explored the place in which would soon call home. This large entering class has been charged with the duty of continuing the tradition and legacy of the mighty golden bull.

Hardworking and determined.

Walter meet the twin towers, Desmond and Lamar.

Sophomore class: Continuing the Legacy

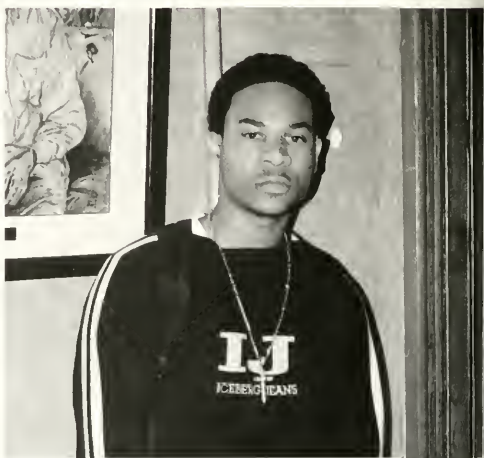

The class of 2002 has shown great promise from their step onto the campus in August of 1998. On a rainy day in August of 1998 the sophomore class began to make its mark on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University. The 500+ students showed great determination and perseverance as they moved into their residence hall in the rain. This class as similar to others lived up to the challenge set before them. The students have maintained high academics and increased involvement in the university and the surrounding community. Presently, the members of the class of 2002 are actively involved in campus organizations and hold numerous leadership positions. In addition, these students have become student orientation leaders and mentors to the incoming class of freshman.

Always having fun!!

Making lasting friendships.

Staying relaxed and calm.

Junior Class: Expanding the Legacy

One more year before the real millennium and one more year before graduation. We entered the gates of Johnson C. Smith University with a mission, to receive everything we believe to have paid for. In addition, we were determined to become involved in the university community as well as the surrounding community. As we look back on our years here, we notice we have accepted and went beyond the challenge set before us as Freshmen. Similar to others, we didn't know what to expect, however we made the best of what we got. Now as we close out this chapter of JCSU history and open another we see the legacy and traditions we have worked so hard to uphold.

A class full of leaders.

Class of 2000:

"Hurry up and take this picture. I have to go to change into my Superman outfit!"

"I haven't been on this side of the street in years."

One of these ladies is doing her own thing. One of these ladies is not one in the same.

Y'all ain't ready for this.

Baby, didn't your Mama teach you that your bra is supposed to go under your shirt.

Jennifer, one of Myers Hall's finest

Powered by Knowledge, Guided by Excellence

The last real Bullfest, spring 1997, Myers Hall Steppers

"I wish I could wear crimson and cream to the Kappa Alpha Psi ball."

Monique Moore holdin' it down for DC.

"What am I doing in this senior picture?"

Hangin out on the block freshman year.

The class of 2000 will forever go down in the history of Johnson C. Smith University as the first graduating class in the 21st century. In the fall of 1996 we came to Smith a group of young Black students seeking knowledge and we will leave stronger Black men and women. While walking the yard we choose friends, majors, and careers. My class is filled with great leaders who did things such as: reactivating organizations, bringing co-ed to Smith, and recapturing student life. My classmates and I will go forth into our communities and change the present situations. As we cross the stage tears will fall for both joy and sadness. Joy because we will be entering a new and exciting world and sadness because we will be leaving behind lifelong friends. We will always be known as the class "Powered by Knowledge and Guided by Excellence."

Put your tongue back in your mouth.

Representing Liston Hall.

Brothers with a mission.

Seniors

Two down and two to go. Tamarah Austin and Asahya Richardson, going home after sophomore year.

Bonded for life.

Do you recognize any of these people?

Smithites chillin with some Celebrities.

Please, pose for the camera ladies?

Work it big girls. Work it.

Kendrick, Justin and Derrick enjoying the senior social.

Three of the loveliest ladies in the class of 2000.

"What, this is my last chance to get in the yearbook!"

Ladell and Melissa partying at Club Roxy

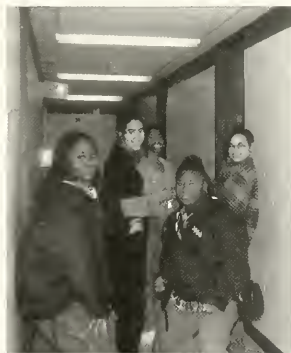

Will the junior please remove herself from the photo

"Ok, I am ready to take the picture now."

Justin, the camera is this way cutie.

Sophomore year, some of the ladies of Greenfield Hall on their way out to a party in the café.

All play and no Work!!

"Which camera should I smile at?" asks Chaunita

We came we saw and we conquered the snow.

"What did I just put on Sequoya's face?" asks Yvonne

Enjoying the fresh air in the mountains.

Congratulations Love, you finally made it. We are so proud of you!! Remember to always keep God first. We Love you and God Bless.

Love,
Dad and Mom
